Featured Content: Skiing Off Cliffs

I picked up skiing sometime before middle school, and have been skiing since, so I've been skiing for about 9 years, almost half my life. Growing up in the PNW, I've been really lucky skiing wise, the ski mountains in my area are very good, and provide challenging terrain as well as a beautiful environment to be in over the weekends during the winter seasons. As I got better as skiing, I started watching pros ski, professional downhill skiiers like Candide Thovex and Marcus Goguen inspired me to push the skills I had in this hobby further and further. Attatched is a picture/video of me skiing off of a cliff. (I'm planning on embedding an instagram reel of me skiing to the website)

Block 1: Valorant State Champion

A hobbie that I picked up since coming to UW Madison is Valorant esports. I picked up the game Valorant during high school. I loved the strategic and competitive aspect of the game. During college I've gotten really good, and won state leagues 2 semesters in a row.

Block 2: Hiking/ Camping

Growing up in the PNW, I've been blessed with being very close to the greate outdoors. For me, hiking brought me a relief from alot of stress during school, or just a break from life in general. (I want a portion of the webiste to be a collection of my hiking photos).
